KHYAM ALLAMI: born to an Iraqi family in Damascus, Syria and brought up in London. His passion for music has led him to explore violin, drums, bass and 'Ud. Tutored by the Iraqi maestro Ehsan Emam of the Baghdad 'Ud school. Khyam's original compositions are influenced by contemporary music world wide including Frank Zappa, Naseer Shamma, Riyad Al-Sunbati, Jaz Coleman and many others.

ROCKET NUMBER 9: as a collective, this south London band have created a sound that is truly something out of the ordinary, yet their music resonates with such familiarity, it feels as if it has always been there - a rich and skillfully textured eclectic mix.

SUNDAY 16th NOV 2008

KMT: is an abbreviation for Kemit/Egypt. He chose this name to indicate his constant quest for education and positivity through music. KMT is a DJ

ARTHUR SMITH: Britain's great stand up performer originally from the alternative comedy scene.... written serious work, including stage plays...seek out his hit Arthur Smith Sings Leonard Cohen (broadcast on Radio 4)...a radio presenter on such BBC Radio 4 programmes as Excess Baggage and Loose Ends...appears on television comedy panel games. Narrator of the TV series A Life of Grime after the death of John Peel and was one of the Grumpy Old Men in the television series of that name.....there's much more....

LOU's SEXTET: jazz and swing—a hard working band on the London circuit

DAVIDE SANNA: a song like '3 Months of Rain' starts almost as a Delta Blues (probably some dry Sardinian river delta), with touches of sitar sounding guitars (Indian Classical music is a great love of Davide's), to finish off in a Middle Eastern bazaar. Simply an amazing guitarist and songwriter played with or opened for the likes of PeterGreen, BB King, Brendan Croker.....and many more.
