FUNKY JAZZ FOR PEACE COLLECTIVE: "Blistering nine piece jazz funk fusion band formed by experienced jazzers with a fervent desire for peace in the world. The boundless energy of this outfit is stunning. You will be on your feet dancing for peace all night".

ARTHUR SMITH: for many years Britain's great stand up performer on the alternative comedy scene... written serious work, including stage plays... seek out his hit Arthur Smith Sings Leonard Cohen (broadcast on Radio 4)... a radio presenter on such BBC Radio 4 programmes as Excess Baggage and Loose Ends... appears on television comedy panel games. Narrator of the TV series A Life of Grime after the death of John Peel and was one of the Grumpy Old Men in the television series of that name.....there's much more....

SAM BESTE: is, at 21, a jazz piano player of some depth, keyboard player with the preposterously talented Amy Winehouse... but more importantly, an extraordinary young songwriting talent". Influences—Joni Mitchell, Stevie Wonder, Ben Folds, Donny Hathaway, Miles Davis, Tracy Chapman, James Taylor, Herbie Hancock, Gil Scott Heron...

DAVIDE SANNA: a song like '3 Months of Rain' starts almost as a Delta Blues (probably some dry Sardinian river delta), with touches of sitar sounding guitars (Indian Classical music is a great love of Davide's), to finish off in some Middle Eastern bazaar. Simply an amazing guitarist and songwriter played with or opened for the likes of PeterGreen, BB King, Brendan Croker.....and many more.
